The Green BSD City, Kec. Serpong, Kota Tangerang Selatan, Banten, Indonesia.

A dedicated Information Systems student at Pembangunan Jaya University, currently in the 5th semester, with a strong passion for front-end development, UI/UX design, and creative digital work. I am highly adaptable, friendly, and quick to learn, with a strong ability to collaborate and communicate effectively across different environments. Outside academics, I enjoy traveling and videography, which further strengthens my creativity and visual thinking. I aim to grow professionally in roles that allow me to blend technical skills, creativity, and teamwork to produce impactful digital experiences.
